HOW DO I DONATE:

To express your interest or to ask a question, go to the Festival website at:

All donations make a difference. We ask you to please consider a donation to join a community of like-minded supporters who are passionate about classical music. Ticket sales alone will not cover the costs of producing the Blackheath Chamber Music Festival and it's through the generosity of annual donors—the core of philanthropy—that will empower our vision and future-planning to select outstanding artists to enthrall you.
